COACHING THE EXTRAORDINARY LEADER

The Coaching the Extraordinary Leader (CTEL) program is a Train the Trainer program that provides participants, who are coaches or internal facilitators, with the necessary certification and license to teach our program The Extraordinary Leader, Advancing the Extraordinary Leader and Extraordinary Performer. This program performs and uses our 360-270-degree assessments and guides for coaching and developing participants.

This program can only be taught by a previously certified Master Trainer.

During the program the participants will:

- Understand and transmit the value of the wide range of research Zenger Folkman has performed.
- Develop participants’ strengths and define their development plan.
- Acquire the necessary skills to train leaders by using the 360 or 270-degree assessment.

(Participant’s profile: Internal or external coaches with previous experience, human resources professionals or professionals from other related departments who are in charge of developing others within our clients’ organizations).

CUSTOMIZATION

Coaching The Extraordinary Leader can be customized to the needs, skill models, culture and preferences of each companies and can be linked to their performance, career and/or talent systems.

PARTICIPANT’S PROFILE

This program is aimed at leaders of all levels, from senior executives to mid-level managers.
Coaching The Extraordinary Leader can be taught in 12 languages and 38 countries.

According to Leadership Excellence, founded by Warren Bennis, Ken Shelton, Stephen Covey, Ken Blanchard and Charles Garfield, Zenger Folkman Co. has been recognized for the last 14 consecutive years (2006/2019) as the leading independent firm for coaching and leadership skills development in the US.
OUR CUSTOMERS
CONTACT OUR EXPERTS

At P&A, we are committed to helping you achieve your Leadership development goals.

NATALIA DÍAZ

E-mail: natalia@grupo-pya.com
Phone: +34 902 207 792