PROFESSION OF MANAGEMENT

Profession Of Management (POM) is a program to develop managers and directors based on 40 years of research and field work by our partner Louis Allen Worldwide. It revolves around: essential management principles, concepts and tools that have been internationally tested.

POM focuses on an action learning methodology, directly applied to the participants' professional background.

We will help each participant:

- Learn the fundamental tested management principles.
- Know their strengths and development needs in terms of management.
- Apply the principles through the four control functions: planning, organizing, leading and supervising.
- Acquire skills, techniques and tools to permanently implement principles and functions.
- Improve execution and results.
- Promote greater engagement and alignment with the organization.
- Foster inter-departmental knowledge and collaboration.
- Acquire common management language, culture and practices.

CUSTOMIZATION

Profession of Management is customizable to the needs, competency models, culture and preferences of each company.

PARTICIPANT’S PROFILE

Profession of Management is aimed at companies of all sizes and all sectors.
LANGUAGES

Profession of Management can be taught in Spanish, English, French and Portuguese.
