THE TRIFECTA OF TRUST

“The Trifecta of Trust” program provides the participants with the results of Zenger Folkman's research on more than 87,000 leaders that identifies the three key elements to build confidence with their teams, coworkers, supervisors and people with whom they have established a work relationship.

Once the key elements have been identified, the participant will be able to:

- Analyze and interpret their confidence self-assessment.
- Design a development plan.
- Improve confidence.
- Improve leadership.

CUSTOMIZATION
